INTRODUCTION

Alexandra is a learner, and details are her passion. Always striving for the next level or a deeper understanding, the status quo is never good enough. And the devil in the details doesn't stand a chance.

A graduate of the University of Kansas with a B.A. in French. (Bonjour!), Alex has worked with clients around the globe. She has an energetic communication style and quirky creative brain. Clients appreciate her thorough and collaborative approach.

She completed Leadership Momentum, a program sponsored by the YWCA, and was nominated in 2009 as a Woman of Excellence. She is also a graduate of Leadership Greater Topeka. She was honored by IABC/Topeka (International Association of Business Communicators) as the 2012 Communicator of the Year and was a speaker at the 2013 international conference in New York City.

Alex is also passionate about children's issues, education and the arts. She serves on the board of the Auburn-Washburn Public Schools Foundation and the Shawnee Heights Career
